Cool, kind and suave, an adhernt of the belief that a smile and pat on the back will accomplish ore than the "mailed fist," Pat toran developed a winning spirit mong the Reds by the kid-glove

A fighter by nature, aggressive and stern, Kid Gleason kept the White Sox working in the harness by allowing them an occasional limpse of a razor strap in his suitease. Both methods bore the lesired fruit. Harmony was preserved among the Reds because Moran saturated the atmosphere round him with his considerate ersonality. The White Sox plugged for Gleason because he was square in his sternness and off the ball field he was one of them.

Did Not Talk Pennant.

Moran didn't talk pennant to his team. He didn't tell them they were the best in the league. Rather he preferred to let them find it of Gleason called a conference ear in the season. He told them the were the best in the league. H pronounced them pennant winner if they would pull together. He would pull together. He hep telling them, and they knew he had a wise baseball head on his moulders. They went out and wo because their gray-topped leade

NORFOLK TEAM EASY PICKING

Georgetown Eleven Have No Trouble in Turning Back Virginia.

SHAWKEY EQUALS DDELL'S RECORD OF 15 STRIKEOUTS

Georgetown University football team exhibited a steam roller year terday afternoon, when they walked over the Norfolk Navy Yard eleven by the score of 58 to 6. The Hilltoppers did not show any wonderful football but their work gives promise of one of the horizontal Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—It was the last day but one of the brush for the Athletics today and they soon leave 1919 baseball exclusively in the hands of the White Sox and Red hole proofs. The Yanks were here for the final double game of the year and made the event sink in by taking both games. Scores, 4 to 1 and 9 to 2.

In winning the nightcap, Bob Shawkey equalled Rube Waddell's American League record by blotting out fifteen Mack men on strikes. His pitching was so mighty that the A's never had more chance than a dollar bill in a shoe store. The soore:

In the history of the Blue and Gray eleven.

The Navy Yard team proved to be no opposition after the first period, as Georgetown substitutes were run onto the field so rapidly that even the officials had a hard time keeping tab of who was who. The Hill-toppers were forced to punt on one occasion and Jimmy Suilivan at quarterback made good with a boot of forty-five yards. The visitors gave the Blue and Gray about the first few minutes but Capt. "Wamba" McQuade finally got loose and romped forty yards to the final chalk mark.

By a series of forward passes and the game, the Norfolk tribe man-aged to squeeze through their touchdown, as forward heaves to King, Brownley and Johnson from the hands of Nall placed the ball on the one-yard line in the first period from which position Coffey plunged over for the visitors' touchplunged over for the visitors' touchdown. Coach Exendine used upmost of his material in this battle but the Virginians tired quickly after the first jwelve minutees and,

Georgetown had things all their
